

The Jasper News.

Arthur F. Drake, Owner and Editor.

JASPER, MO., THURSDAY, OCT. 26, 1916.

Nineteenth Year. No. 9

Munsingwear

The most satisfactory underwear in the world for men, women and children. Munsing Union Suits are fine in quality, non-irritating, fit perfectly, wear longer, wash best.

Winter is a good time to get acquainted with Munsingwear, if you want to keep warm and comfortable. Made in all sizes wanted. A right size for everybody.

We can fit you perfectly. Try us and see.

Ladies' and Children's Coats

The season's smartest styles, made up in the most desired materials and the very newest models, including Plush, Broadcloth, Gaberdines, Wool Velours, Novelty Weaves, etc. The grace and swing of their smart lines appear instantly.

Priced at $2.50 up to $25.00

Roberts
JASPER, MO.

Democratic Rally Saturday Night

A Democratic Rally at the Jasper Opera House, Saturday night, October 28, is announced. S. W. Bates, candidate for Prosecuting Attorney, and other Democratic county candidates will address the people.

A quartette and a string band will furnish music, and in this connection Township Committeeman John Marsh announces that the quartette will not be a "nigger" quartette.

The News is $1.00 a year and worth it.

Lon Garner Dies After Brief Illness.

Lon Garner, a young man well known in this community, died in Joplin last week after an illness of but two or three days. He was a brother of Earl Garner of the Dublin neighborhood and is survived by a widow and one child. Lon Garner lived in this section many years and his death is regretted by a large number of friends and acquaintances.

Send the home paper away.

First National Bank Jasper, Missouri

| | |
|----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| F. F. Follmer, President. | W. H. Waters, jr., Cashier. |
| E. B. Jacobs, Vice-President. | E. L. Crawford, Asst. Cashier. |

DIRECTORS

| | |
|-------------------|---------------|
| F. F. Follmer | E. B. Jacobs |
| W. R. Schooler | A. F. Gresham |
| W. H. Waters, jr. | H. G. Griffin |
| D. H. Wampler | |

We invite your business and extend every accommodation consistent with good banking.

TWO DEATHS IN ONE FAMILY

Mrs. Ed Preston Loses Son and Brother in One Day.

Some 10 days ago Mrs. Ed Preston was called to the bedside of her brother, Joe McQuillin, at Sioux City, Iowa, where he lay in a hospital, having been operated on a few days before. Mr. McQuillin's vitality had been weakened by disease and he did not rally from the operation, but passed away Wednesday, October 18, aged about 47 years.

Mr. McQuillin lived here many years but left Jasper about 12 years ago. He is survived by a widow and two grown daughters. His whereabouts was unknown to many old friends and acquaintances here, who had not heard from him until the news came of his serious illness and death.

On the day of the death of Mrs. Preston's brother, Chester Corder, youngest son of Mrs. Preston, was killed in a wreck near Rock Hill, Mont. For about five years Chester Corder has been employed by the Western Union Telegraph Co. on a construction and repair crew. By his efficiency and close attention to his work he had become assistant foreman of his crew and was popular with men and officers.

Details of the accident have not reached here, and all the news obtainable was brought by Vernie Radford, another Jasper boy working for the Western Union, whose information was embodied in a telegram from the foreman at Rock Hill to the superintendent.

Mr. Radford states that on Wednesday, the 18th instant, the crew at Rock Hill, in charge of Assistant Foreman Chester Corder, boarded a motor car to go to their work a few miles out on the Great Northern Railway. This railway furnished a conductor and flagman to protect the car and conduct it out to the working point and back. The conductor received his train orders from the dispatcher, but made a mistake in reading them, and at 8:10 a. m. on the trip out met another train, the motor car being wrecked. Chester and another man were killed outright, two were seriously injured and 13 were more or less hurt.

Mr. Radford was sent from Denver by the Western Union to meet the train bringing the body to Jasper, and he met the train at Alliance, Nebr. The body should have arrived Sunday morning, but a snowstorm caused the train to miss connections at Billings, Mont., causing a 24-hour delay, and then they missed connections at Kansas City, making it 12 hours later, arriving here about 9:30 Tuesday morning.

Chester Corder grew to manhood in Jasper and went to school here, and since leaving he has kept in close touch with his old friends. He spent some weeks here last winter and his death is indeed a shock to his numerous relatives and friends. He was a good boy, and to the day of his death was a source of great comfort and pride to his mother and sisters as well as his brother Arthur.

He was nearly 26 years old and unmarried. Besides his mother he leaves two sisters, Mrs. Norval Gray of Webb City, and Minnie Corder a school girl here, and a brother Arthur, who lives at Tulsa, Okla.

The body of Mr. McQuillin was also brought to Jasper and one funeral service was held for both at the M. E. Church Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Hibbs of La Harpe, Kans., conducted the service. The church holds about 350 and the seats were all taken and a number were standing. The floral tributes were beautiful and numerous. The hymns were sung by a double quartette composed of Mrs. D. C. Houser, Miss Snoda Vincent, Mrs. Mayme Peterson, Miss Grace Teeter and Messrs. Omer Webb, H. J. Deardorff, E. L. Lauderbaugh and H. A. Vincent. The pallbearers for Mr. McQuillin were George Johnson, Clint Rand, M. L. Arner, Homer Bayne, Dan Johnson and Frank Crow. Those for Chester were Rue Webb, Glenn Buzzard, Levi Kitterman, Virgil Rice, Vernie Radford and Clarence Donnell.

The following were here from other points for the funeral: Robert Simms and wife, Modesta, Ill.; Robert Lamey and wife, Everett, Cal.; and May Lamey, Mrs. Lamey, Mr. and Mrs. Pearson and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Noakes, Carthage; Norval Gray and wife, Webb City; Arthur Corder and wife, Tulsa, Okla.

Miss Mayme Bell Weds.

Miss Mayme Bell, of Golden City, and Mr. Estill H. Swearingen, of Chicago, were married at the home of the bride's uncle, C. F. Miller, at Ft. Scott, on the afternoon of October 14th.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. F. M. Conrad and lived in Jasper at one time where she has many friends who wish her happiness.

Married at the County Seat.

Miss Carrie Storebeck, daughter of Herman Storebeck and wife, and Arthur Strecker, son of W. A. Strecker, both prominent families in the neighborhood seven miles east of Jasper, slipped off from their friends last Thursday and were married in Carthage, going directly to Miami, where Mr. Strecker is employed and had furnished a home for his bride.

The young folks are among the best known in this community and are highly esteemed by all who know them. We wish them joy.

Wed in Carthage.

Miss Marie Johnson, daughter of G. H. Johnson and wife, became the wife of Thos. H. Miller of Peoria, Ill., Wednesday evening, October 18, at 6 o'clock. The marriage took place at the parsonage of the First M. E. Church of Carthage, Dr. W. B. Clinton conducting the ceremony.

The bride wore blue silk georgette crepe with an over-dress of shadow lace and chiffon, and was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Josie Welsh.

Mr. Miller is a son of a well known family of Warrensburg, and is a young farmer of sterling worth and character.

The young couple will spend the winter in Illinois, and after March 1 will be at home to their many friends in a cozy little home Mr. Miller has prepared for his bride at Warrensburg.

Boy Gets Bullet Through Knee.

Cletis Roberts, 12 years old, and Hallie Pinnell, aged 14, went rabbit hunting Saturday morning on the Moulton place on Possum Creek. They carried a small rifle and were good enough shots to get one cottontail. Before they bagged any more game, however, Cletis got a rifle ball through the knee of the right leg, to the right of the kneecap and bone, and the day's sport stopped short. The rifle was in the hands of Hallie at the time, but neither of the boys is right sure how it all happened. Cletis will be all right again in a few days and then the boys will have had an experience that will be worth much to them in the future.

Republican Meeting at Bloomingdale.

A Republican meeting will be held at Bloomingdale schoolhouse Friday evening at 7:30. W. N. Andrews, candidate for the state senate, and Paul Ewart, a prominent attorney of Joplin, will address the people on the political issues. The public is invited. Ladies are especially invited to be present.

Carr and Horton Dissolved.

Carr & Horton, dealers in poultry, eggs, flour and feed, have dissolved partnership, Mr. Horton stepping out and Mr. Carr continuing the business at the old stand. All parties knowing themselves indebted to this firm are requested to call and settle same.

Scratch No and Vote Yes.

Proposed amendment to the constitution of Missouri, to be submitted to the legal voters of the state of Missouri for their approval or rejection at the regular general election to be held on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1916. Prohibiting the manufacture or the introduction into, and the giving, exchanging, bartering, selling, or disposing of intoxicating liquors in the state of Missouri, except wine for sacramental purposes, prescribing a penalty for the violation thereof and repealing all parts of the state constitution, state and municipal laws in conflict therewith.

Be it enacted by the people of the state of Missouri:

Section 1. From and after July 1st, 1917, no intoxicating liquor or liquors, except wine for sacramental purposes, shall be manufactured in or introduced into the State of Missouri under any pretense. Every person who sells, exchanges, gives, barter, or disposes of intoxicating liquor of any kind to any person in the State of Missouri, or who manufactures, or introduces into, or attempts to introduce into the State of Missouri, intoxicating liquor of any kind, except wine as aforesaid for the purposes aforesaid, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than $300 nor more than $1000, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than six months nor more than twelve months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

All parts of the State Constitution, and laws of the State and municipalities therein conflicting with the provisions of this section, are hereby repealed.

Mrs. Myrtle Hartley Passes Away

Mrs. Myrtle Hartley was born in Barton County in the Blue neighborhood a few miles northwest of Jasper, 28 years ago. She died at St. Joseph, Mo., Friday, October 20, 1916. The funeral was held at the Baptist Church in Jasper, Sunday, October 22, and the remains laid away in Waters Cemetery. Rev. J. W. Keltner of Carl Junction preached the funeral sermon.

Mrs. Hartley was the daughter of the late W. M. Deardorff and wife. Some years ago she married John S. Hartley, to whom were born three daughters, all of whom and the stricken husband survive to mourn the loss of wife and mother.

Mrs. Hartley's health has been poor for some time—the doctors said it was heart trouble—and with the hope that a change of climate would help her Mr. Hartley sold out here and took his family to Colorado early in the summer, but on arrival there they found the altitude too high and they came back to Missouri in a few days after leaving and settled at St. Joseph. Mrs. Hartley continued to fail in strength and vitality until death claimed her.

At the funeral the church was crowded with relatives and friends of the family, for it was here that both Mr. and Mrs. Hartley grew to manhood and womanhood, and the death of this loved young mother and wife brought sorrow to scores of hearts and homes.

..Morse's Box Candies..

We have just opened up a fine assortment of Box Candies in all the popular sizes and prices. Our line is guaranteed the finest quality. Every box must give satisfaction.

The Nyal Pharmacy
C. L. HILL